Windsor Police Service Reconsideration Policy/Correction of Police Record Check

In accordance with the Police Record Check Reform Act (PRCRA 10.4 and O.Reg 348/18), the Windsor Police Service, Information Services Unit has implemented the following Reconsideration Process.

CRITERIA FOR RECONSIDERATION:

Per the PRCRA, the reconsideration process is specifically for Vulnerable Sector Check (VSC) non-conviction dispositions only. On a VSC, certain non-convictions dispositions may be eligible for disclosure under the exceptional disclosure provisions of the PRCRA (10 (2) O. Reg 350/18). An applicant who has received a Vulnerable Sector Check containing non-conviction information released under the exceptional disclosure provisions may submit a request for reconsideration in accordance with O. Reg 348/18.

MAKING A REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION AND SUBMISSIONS:

A request for reconsideration must be made in writing for later than 45 days after receiving the record, unless, through no fault of their own, the individual was unable to make the request within the time period.

A request for reconsideration may include written submissions in support of the request for reconsideration

A request for reconsideration may be made by electronic means that comply with the Electronic Commerce Act, 2000.

TIMELINES

The Windsor Police Service will provide the individual with a response to their reconsideration request within 30 days of receipt of the request (PRCRA 10.4)

PROCESS (O.Reg 341/18 3a-c)

In reconsidering its determination, the Windsor Police Service will:

- Apply the criteria set out in subsection 10(2) of the PRCRA Criteria for Exceptional Disclosure
- Consider the entries on the individual's vulnerable sector check; and
- Consider the individual's written submissions

PANEL

All VSC that have been subject to the exceptional disclosure review will be reviewed by the Supervisor of the Records Search Unit prior to their release. Therefore the reconsideration panel will consist of the Director of Information Services, the Information and Privacy Coordinator (or designate) and a third member of the senior leadership team.

NOTIFICATION

The Windsor Police Service will provide the applicant with a written notice of the reconsideration decision within 30 days of receipt of the reconsideration request.

REQUEST FOR CORRECTION

If an individual wishes to request correction to information in respect of their police record check, they may do so by completing a request for correction form. (PRCRA 15(1)). The Windsor Police Service will respond to your request for correction upon receipt at no additional cost.

The Windsor Police Service will provide all applicants with a timely response and reissue any corrected records.
